

Chicago Tribune.

VOLUME XVII.

Chicago Tribune.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1863.

REPUBLICAN UNION TICKET.

COOK COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

For Judge of the Superior Court:

JOSEPH R. GALT.

For Deputy Clerk of the Superior Court:

JOHN C. BREWER.

For County Treasurer:

JOHN E. KIRKHAM.

For County Surveyor:

ALBERTUS WOLCOTT.

TOWN NOMINATIONS.

South Chicago—Superior—DR. AARON GRINN.

Collector—FRANK LUDWIG.

Assessor—H. R. REED.

Trustee—DR. JAMES P. LEE.

West Chicago—Superior—W. W. PALMER.

Collector—DR. JAMES P. LEE.

Assessor—THOMAS H. STEVENS.

North Chicago—Superior—CHARLES CHARLTON.

Collector—DR. J. G. HOGG.

Assessor—WILLIAM H. STICKNEY.

Trustee—DR. J. H. STEVENS.

WARD SUPERVISORS.

First—Dr. J. H. STEVENS.

Second—Dr. J. G. HOGG.

Third—Dr. J. W. PALMER.

Fourth—Dr. J. C. BREWER.

Fifth—Dr. J. E. KIRKHAM.

Sixth—Dr. A. W. WOLCOTT.

SEVENTH—DR. J. H. STEVENS.

EIGHTH—DR. J. H. STEVENS.

NINTH—DR. J. H. STEVENS.

TENTH—DR. J. H. STEVENS.

THE ELECTION.

Our Chicago oligarchs are voluminous and interesting. Gen. Sherman has issued a highly important order to his command, which should be adopted and made general in all parts and posts of the service.

The Union ticket in this State is unassassable. All that is wanted is firmness and good judgment on the part of Federal commanders. The rebel cause in that section is badly frayed out, and is easily in danger of being restored to full vigor if our generals thievishly fail to save the cause of slavery. It is dead now, and the President, who has given up all his efforts to catch it, will let it go in his own way—any way.

Let all the men who have ventured out to see and/or Buck Morris be totally swamped. The people will.

THE GOALS.

A large and intelligent audience turned out to hear Major Gen. Oglesby on Saturday evening at the North Market Hall. Expectation was high. The fate of the election had preceded him. We hazard a guess in saying he was disappointed. No speech more appropriate to the times and the occasion was ever delivered in Chicago. Its eloquence was of the vehement—the thunder-and-lightning-style, and then caught quickly around the room. And yet no man met greater applause. In a word, he is a gallant soldier, and a favorite in the army. He is a brilliant popular orator, and a favorite of the masses. The return of the election to the North will be a signal for his efforts here are appreciated.

A WORD TO MR. MECH.

Mech, the candidate on the copperhead ticket for School Commissioner, has turned a half somersault. He comes out a leader in the West, stating, that while he is to be appreciated, he is in favor of the Government. Mech should learn, by study of the Constitution, that a man's right to be appreciated, is in favor of the Government, and that he must go down between them. We make no question of Mr. Mech's loyalty, but he is a young and ambitious man, just now in the political world, and he is to be regretted. In a moment political outside of the politics of the rebellion, Mech withdrew entirely from the ideological camp, as the people have a homely way of judging a man, by the company he keeps. This is our advice to Mr. Mech, and we wish him in this the final consequences which will befall him if he refuses to leave it.

BUCK AND BUCKNER.

Eight years ago, Buck—Mech's partner—was leading a rebel division, in subduing the affairs of the Know Nothing party in Illinois. Their partnership was a close one, and they did it's a thriving business. That partnership has never been dissolved. At the outbreak of the rebellion, Buckner, as a traveling partner, went South. Buck, his partner, as he still is, has kept up the fire in the rear, especially since he has retired. He is a mistake now which has prevailed in the community, that the fire has disengaged his hands. The shop is still open. They operate for the same end—the overthrow of the Government. Buck's partner, the one who has courage enough to meet our army in the front, the other fights cowardly in the rear.

HOW TO BAKE THEM.

Copy the following from the Chicago Daily News, this, Time of writing:

"Not the President of the Chicago Union ticket, but the Chicago Copperhead ticket, has a clear majority of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars for me."

It is a great relief to the public, that the Chicago Copperhead ticket, has a clear majority of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars for me."

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

The Washington Daily News, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the people residing along the Rappahannock River, are in great alarm."

THE BATTLE OF BROWN'S FARM.

The New York Tribune, says the following:

"The rebels hold the town of Fredericksburg, and the

